

Faye’s PCW review

Faye has her review next week and we have been busy surveying students and staff about Faye’s role here at Palmer. We would also love some parent feedback so have included a parent survey as an insert to this newsletter. If you can spare any time, your feedback would be greatly appreciated.

Book Week

Next Week is Book Week and we are launching this special week with a book week parade next Monday morning, the 19th of August, at 9:00 am. Following a school parade, we will be walking around the block and then our SLC (Student Learning Communities) representatives will be running a creative, body-based learning activity with a shortlisted Book Week text. We would love your attendance at this if you are available.

Kind regards,
Lauren Poole

PALMER PRIMARY SCHOOL

Small School, Enormous Opportunities

Dear Parents, Carers and Friends,

Today we had an amazing excursion at the road and cycle safety centre, This has become an annual excursion which students look forward to every year, and although the learning they experience is the same, I think the message of safety is one that can be repeated as often as possible. Staff have also delighted in seeing the confidence in students grow as they ride their bikes and navigate their way around the tracks with newfound confidence.

Exciting new App for school communication

Kellie and I have been busy setting up our new Skool Bag account. Skool bag is an app which you can download onto your phone, and it enables us to instantly communicate with families. You are also able to communicate with us, and within a few clicks notify the school of an absence or lateness, or browse the latest newsletters, calendars, notices and more. The app is free to download, and we believe that it is a great, efficient way to communicate. To download the app, please search 'Skoolbag' through the app store on iPhones/iPads or through Google play store. Further information about the Skoolbag app is available on the following page of this newsletter. We look forward to hearing your feedback about this new app!

Bunnings BBQ next Saturday August 24th

We are holding our second fundraiser next Saturday, the 24th of August at Bunnings Murray Bridge. Unfortunately at this stage we don't have many volunteers at all and would really love your help. Please let myself or Kellie know if you can spare any time next Saturday from 730 until 430, any times are appreciated. If you aren't available that day, we are also hoping for more helpers for our Hot Rod Show fundraiser on the Sun 6th October, or during our sports day. Any help is greatly appreciated!
