Small School, Enormous Opportunities

Dear Families,

Wow week four is already over and only five weeks to go... This term is always a crazy term and lots happening. Just this week we have had our Book Week parade, another transition day & our Birdwood Museum excursion... You will see some great photos in this newsletter of the excursion and parade.

Student Free Day—Monday 16th November 2020

We will be having our last Student Free Day on Monday of week six, Monday the 16th of November. On this day, staff will be further unpacking our Literacy agreement and looking at how we can improve our Literacy Blocks even more with the research into the science of reading. We will also be planning for success for 2021. Students will be returning to school on Tuesday, the 17th of November.

Remembrance Day

Our school will take part in the Remembrance Day at the Palmer Memorial. Our students will raise the flag and read out a poem.

Cricket Clinic

We have been lucky enough to get SACA (South Australian Cricket Association) to come out and will be running a clinic for the whole school on Wednesday 18th November. Students in the past have loved this and taken on new skills.

Regards

Lauren Poole
